

List of image galleries to address image and representation bias

Image gallery	Image gallery URL	Free (0) or fee ($)	Image gallery description
Burst	https://burst.shopify.com/	0	Burst has 1000+ free, high-res, diverse images featuring trending business ideas and intended for designers, developers, bloggers, and entrepreneurs.
Lean In (w/ Getty)	http://leanin.org/getty	$	Lean In has worked with Getty Images to close the gender gap in how women are portrayed in stock photos.
MuslimGirl.com collection (w/ Getty)	https://www.gettyimages.com/search/photographer?family=creative&photographer=muslim%20girl&sort=best#license	$	The " MuslimGirl.com collection " with Getty makes images available for commercial use that represent modern Muslim women being themselves.
Nappy	https://www.nappy.co	0	Nappy provides "Beautiful, high-res photos of black and brown people. For free."
Obesity Action Coalition	https://www.obesityaction.org/gallery	0	The Obesity Action Coalition has created a gallery of images to portray people of different weights positively and in different settings.
Representation Matters	http://representationmatters.me	$	Representation Matters has created a royalty-free, commercial stock photo library focused on inclusion, ethnic and social diversity, and healthy body image.
Tonl	https://tonl.co	$	Tonl provides reasonably-priced, "culturally diverse stock photos that represent the true world we live in. Creating an inclusive culture takes both commitment and action."
Women of Color in Tech	https://www.flickr.com/photos/wocintechchat/	0	The Women of Color in Tech (#WOCinTech) group makes Creative Commons photos available

See also Sanders, K. (2017, November 2). Where to find racially diverse stock photography. Huffington Post. Retrieved from https://www.huffingtonpost.com/entry/where-to-find-racially-diverse-stock-photography_us_59ef94afe4b00a4ce5a22218